

Irene S. Ator/ American Guild of Organists Music Scholarship Recipients Recital

Special thanks to Michael Dulac, Director of Music,
Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception for hosting today's recital.

For more information about the American Guild of Organists and the Irene S. Ator/American Guild of Organists Music Scholarship, visit www.fortwayneago.com

January 13, 2019

3:00 p.m.

The Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception Fort Wayne, IN

Irene S. Ator/ American Guild of Organists Music Scholarship

Recipients Recital

Annika Kroeker

Still, Still, Still

Trad, arr. D. Alexander

Garrett Krizon

O Come, O Come Emmanuel
One Small Child

Carol Tornquist, arr.

Venetian Gondola Song No. 1

F. Mendelssohn

Aidan Kroeker

Sonatine, Movement 1, "Modéré"

M. Ravel

Prelude, op 23 no. 4

S. Rachmaninoff

Annika Kroeker, a homeschooled senior, loves the arts in all forms. She studies piano with Sarah Cresse, learning sacred, classical, contemporary, and Broadway music. She led worship through the spring and summer at church, enjoying the opportunity to praise God through music. Annika is the concertmaster for KHA Strings, in addition to teaching and conducting for this group. She has attended a worship band camp for the past three years, furthering her improvisational skills. Annika studies voice with Stephen Cresse and Stacy Muncie, performing in eight musicals throughout high school. Annika also is a seasoned actress, performing a wide variety of supporting and leading roles in local groups including Fire and Light, All for One, and Kinetic Revelation. Annika dances with En Croix Ballet, performing many leading roles, as well as teaching and choreographing for them. Annika thanks the Irene Ator/AGO scholarship for allowing her the opportunity to further her piano studies with her private teacher throughout 2018.

Garrett Krizon is 14 years old and a freshman at Homestead High School. He has played the piano for about one and a half years under Daniel Stewart and the organ under Phyllis Lahr for almost one year. He enjoys playing music on these instruments and also likes to learn the theory. He hopes to use this talent in his future career.

Aidan Kroeker is a homeschooled sophomore passionate about playing piano. He studies with Stephen Cresse, enjoying the variety of music from all time periods. In the summer of 2017 he began studying organ with Wayne Peterson, and resumed these lessons in the fall of 2018. He rehearses and performs with KHA Advanced Strings as their pianist. Aidan accompanies numerous weekly voice lessons. Recently he accompanied four college-level vocalists for NATS. Aidan played for church worship weekly through the spring and summer, utilizing both his classical and improvisational skills. Aidan also volunteers his piano skills for Fire and Light's youth theater, including the upcoming production of Tuck Everlasting, where he recorded all audition and practice tracks and rehearsed the singers. He was a finalist in the Gene Marcus piano competition for 2016, 2017, and won third place in 2018. Aidan has been very thankful for the Irene Ator/AGO scholarship which permitted him the opportunity to further his skills by attending IPFW's piano camp in 2016, 2017, and 2018.

Please join us for a reception following today's recital for the Scholarship Students, sponsored by the Scholarship Committee of the Fort Wayne Chapter, American Guild of Organists