

~The Organist's Alpha to Omega~

A workshop featuring a survey of old and new chorale-based repertoire for organists of all ages and abilities.

Saturday September 28th - 10:00 a.m.

Suburban Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 6318 W. California Rd. 46818

Participants will receive a packet of music provided by publishers.

Have you wondered how to begin looking at new hymn-based organ music? How do you discern between arrangements of the same tune? What about old arrangements - where do they fit in? These and many more questions will be answered in this informative and collaborative session.

Bring your ideas and old or new repertoire suggestions!

Organists are encouraged to bring their own ideas and suggestions on their favorite chorale-based repertoire.

A Brunch will follow the session!

The workshop and brunch is free for anyone to attend. However, please RSVP for the brunch by going to: www.fortwayneago.com an click under 'chapter events' or by calling 260-229-1387.
